No responsibility as to the contents of this PDS is taken by the Lead Regulator, ASIC, their officers, employees or agents.

This PDS will expire 6 months from the date specified above, or such earlier date as may be determined by the Promoter ("Offer closing date").

This PDS is available in both printed form and online in PDF format.

2. Jurisdiction

The Offer constituted by this PDS is only available to persons receiving this PDS within Australia. This PDS does not constitute an offer in any jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would be unlawful to make such an Offer. The distribution of this PDS to jurisdictions outside Australia may be restricted and persons who come into possession of this PDS should seek advice from their professional advisers and observe any possible restrictions. A failure to comply with such restrictions may violate the applicable securities law.

3. Disclosure

This PDS has been prepared by the Promoter for presentation to prospective investors in compliance with the disclosure requirements for the public offering of Shares in thoroughbred horses being syndicated for racing purposes set out in Class Order 02/139 issued by ASIC on 15th February, 2002 ("the Class Order").

The only information authorised by the Promoter to be provided to prospective investors is that contained in this PDS. No person is authorised to give any information or make any representations in connection with the Offer, other than the information and representations contained in this PDS.

Prior to entering into this investment, prospective investors should read this PDS in its entirety and are advised to consult their independent licensed investment adviser, legal, taxation and other professional consultants (including bloodstock consultants) in assessing the potential merits of the investment.

(13) Owners limited right of indemnity

The Owners rights of indemnity are limited by the provisions of clauses 21 and 22.

By the provisions of clause 25, each Owner grants the Security Interest to the other Owners and the Syndicate Manager, and consents to the registration of the Security Interest on the PPSR.

20. Risk

Prospective investors should be aware that there are inherent risks associated with the ownership and racing of thoroughbred horses, including (without limitation):

- (a) the speculative nature of the investment, which will require the Owners to incur obligations, liabilities and expense without the assurance of any financial return:
 - (i) not all horses offered for syndication progress to competing in races;
 - (ii) not all horses that do race, win or are placed, or are assured of winning any Prize money;
 - (iii) the rate at which young horses mature varies markedly, and it is not possible to predict with any degree of certainty at what age a horse will be mature enough to race;
 - (iv) injuries can be sustained which may delay or inhibit a horse's ability to race, or even prevent a horse from having a racing career at all; and
 - (v) a horse may die or its value be diminished as a consequence of accident, illness, infertility, injury, or natural cause;
- (b) if the Horse is an Entire:
 - (i) it may require gelding (the majority of colts are gelded) as a consequence of physical or behavioural considerations in an effort to enhance racing performance; or
 - (ii) if the Horse is permitted to remain an Entire, any residual value as a stallion is not assured;
- (c) the value of the Horse and the Shares will fluctuate during the Term; and
- (d) there may be no ready market for the Shares, or the Horse, either at any time during the Term or upon termination of the Syndicate.

Insurance Cover is available for some, but not all risks associated with the ownership of thoroughbred horses [Clause 14.1 of the Deed].
